Flexible Engagement Models

A single delivery model can be constraining, which is why we offer a variety of ways to engage, allowing you to select the option that best fits your needs. Whether you need a single pair of hands or an entire team of experts, we're here to help.

Merchandising On Demand

Plantensive's Merchandising on Demand is a scalable, "as you need it" service that provides your organization with our team's extensive expertise without the burden of a long-term contract. We offer the ability to outsource your planogram, floorplan, cluster, and assortment development to a team of highly-experienced, on-shore, space and category management professionals.

Project Work

Have a project that demands a skilled team to help guide it from end to end? We've worked with some of the largest and best-known retailers and manufacturers in the world; we'll put that experience to work for you. We'll take your nascent project off your hands and deliver it back to you on time, within budget, and to specification.

Strategic Advisory

Looking for a partner who can provide insight and understanding to position your supply chain for superior growth and optimization? We'll work with you to create high-level strategies and assess project feasibility and ROI.

Staff Augmentation

Need someone with a specialized set of skills to come in and solve a problem with surgical precision? Plantensive's highly-skilled consulting force is available for staff augmentation engagements, no matter how big or small the need. Click here to learn more!
